

Halton Suicide Prevention Coalition invites you to attend the annual meeting:

“Resiliency: A Path to Zero Suicide”

Keynote speakers

Dr. Ian Dawe, an Associate Professor of Psychiatry at the University of Toronto, Program Chief and Medical Director of Mental Health at Trillium Health Partners and Chair of the Ontario Hospital Association’s Suicide Prevention Standards Task Force.

Working in collaboration with Trillium’s senior leadership team, as well as its medical and allied health professionals, Dr. Dawe is focused on advancing the quality of care and fostering leading inter-professional practices in mental health care.

Mark Henick, mental health advocate and Program Manager for Mental Health Works at Canadian Mental Health Association (CMHA) Ontario.

Informed by his direct experience with stigma and the mental health care system as an adolescent, Mark dedicated his life from an early age to opening minds and creating change. He has served as a member of the Canadian Mental Health Association (CMHA) National board of directors and is currently the youngest ever board member for the Mental Health Commission of Canada.
